LIVELY.—The town was unusually lively yesterday. The session of the District Court, and the attendance of grand and trial jurors, brought hither our most prominent men from all the other towns and sections of the county. Many were amazed at the substantial evidences of prosperity exhibited by Reno.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Chas. E. DeLong arrived on the train from Virginia last night. He is billed to lecture at the Opera House this evening for the benefit of the Library. His subject will be handled in a masterly manner and all who attend will be delighted.

COMING.—The Amy Stone theatrical troupe are coming. They will perform here three consecutive nights early in May, and give another performance later in the month, previous to their departure for the East. The Reno Opera House has been engaged.

BEAR in mind Charlie DeLong's lecture to-night. It will be a rare treat in every sense of the word.

A CHALMING Spring day was yesterday. More in store for us.

THE CONCERT.—The entertainment given at Dyer's Hall night before last was all that could be desired. The singing of the quartette was very fine and deserved the applause it received. The shadow pictures representing Blue Beard, dentistry, etc., were interesting. The statuary of the "Three Graces" was unusually fine, while that of the "Three Disgraces" was as natural as life. The "Flower of the Family," the first scene of which is an old barrel, and this falling to pieces, revealing a little girl dressed in white, was good. Mrs. Fisher presided at the piano with marked ability, and her instrumental piece, "The Firebells," was so well rendered that the audience felt the thrill that a genuine alarm of fire causes. Her little daughter sang a solo very nicely indeed. Miss Kate Stuart sang "Who's that Knocking at the Garden Gate?" in character, with Miss Gertie Hatch as the young miss who was interested in that mysterious rapping. The feature of the evening, in our opinion, was the reading of that grand old poem, "Barbara Fritchie," by Miss Ella Tolles. She shows ability. After the concert was over with the large audience were invited to patronize the lunch, fancy article and flower tables, which they did freely. The reasonable prices charged caused everything to go off like hot cakes, and one continuous stream of money flowed into the coffers of the Congregational church.

NEVADA STATE JOCKEY CLUB.—At the annual meeting of the Nevada State Jockey Club, held Thursday, for the election of officers and formation of a speed programme for State Fair, to be held from September to 11 to 18, 1876, the following officers were elected: C. C. Batterman, President; W. R. Chamberlain, F. F. Osbiston, L. T. Fox and Theodore Wilters, Vice President, and B. F. Leete, Secretary. The premium list for speed contests was agreed upon. The club adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

DISTRICT COURT YESTERDAY.—In the District Court yesterday a Grand Jury was empannelled, with T. K. Hymers as Foreman. The Jury concluded their business late in the afternoon, reporting an indictment against D. H. Flynn. The Grand Jury ignored four bills.

The case of S. Buckley vs. Armina Buckley, Administratrix of the estate of H. A. Buckley, deceased, was on trial, and consumed the day. This case will probably occupy the Court all of to-day.

THE GREAT SHOW.—Montgomery Queen, the keenest showman in the country, not forgetting Barnum, sends us a circular letter apprizing us of the opening of his great shows at San Francisco, and to remind us that he will soon visit Reno. The proprietor has made many changes in his Circus and Menagarie since last season, and is sure to take the country by storm when he moves into the rural districts.

POLICE NEWS.—Yesterday John and Edward Condon each received thirty days for robbing Mrs. Beck. The four men who were arrested as vagrants, named Allen, Brown, Mace and Gordon, also appeared before Judge Gilson, but were discharged with orders to leave town. They left.

WHAT a wonderful country that is contignous to Reno. Quicksilver, sulphur and quartz mines, and now they have struck placer diggings.—Carson Tribune.

U bet.

THE emigrant travelers are becoming more numerous every day. The proportion of gain is largely in favor of the Pacific Coast.

GAS.—Gas has been introduced into Brookins' and Simmons.' All the places adjoining Barnett's are to be thus supplied.

GOING FISHING.—Charlie DeLong will put in the day fishing. The fish that plays Charlie for a sucker will find him a whale-r.

YESTERDAY was generally observed as a holiday throughout the East, in honor of Lincoln. Here no notice was taken of the day.

A VERY personal article from the pen of Secretary Corless, of the Con. Poe, appears under "New To-day." Read it.

SENATOR SHARON left Washington Thursday evening for California via New York.
